The figance committee, to whom had been referred the petition of four teachers for an incresse in salaries, reported that the board had no funds available for

or. Smith from the special committee to whom had been referred the matter of securing rooms for the four schools removed from the third story of Peabody building and the one removed from the third story of Academy building and also the matter of a new school building, re-ported that the committee had secured the use of Armory Hall for the one boys school, free of cost, and of the building on Prince street near Pitt, belonging to Mrs. Ewing, for the four girls echools for $100 for three months, the board to pay any damage that may be done to the saidding. The committee had examined The committee had examined several buildings, and recommended the use of Mrs. Ewing's house and Armory Hall. The committee had also met a a City Council committee on Monday night lest and had discussed the matter of a new school building and would hold another meeting soon in reference to the matter. The committee stated that the matter of selling Peatody building was still open.

Mr. Stabler, from the same special committee, reported that several sites for a new school building had been examined and reported the price at which the lots could be secured.

Mr. Ramsay moved that the report of the special committee be accepted and that the committee be empowered to secure the two buildings for the five schools. Mr. Carter opposed the report and moved that Peabody and Academy buildings be closed at once; that schools be dismissed for the session and that Peabody building be offered for sale at once. Mr. Yates seconded Mr. Carter's motion and wanted to telegraph for School Examiner Maphis to come here at once and bring the State architect with at once and bring the state architect with him and break ground at once; he also Carter Thornton, Ernest Reynolds, wanted the people of Alexandria to get Harry Beach and Misses Marguerite wanted the people of Alexandria to get
